BURT ALIMANSKY TO RECEIVE PETER HILTON AWARD FOR LEADERSHIP

New York, May 22, 2012 – ACG New York and The M&A Advisor are proud to announce that Burt Alimansky, Chairman and CEO of Capital Roundtable is the 2012 recipient of the Peter Hilton Award for Leadership in recognition of his contributions to ACG New York and to the middle-market private equity community at large.

For over 25 years, Burt Alimansky has served as a dedicated member and officer and director of ACG New York, including two years as President in the 1990s. During his tenure as President, the Chapter achieved new heights of revenue, programming, and membership – a foundation for the success that the organization enjoys now. Today he is CEO of the Capital Roundtable, America’s leading Conference Company for the middle-market private equity community, focusing on the “need-to-know” information needs of general and limited partners, and their colleagues and portfolio company managers.

On the evening of June 12, 2012 at Sotheby’s auction house in New York City, Mr. Alimansky will receive his award at the Second Annual ACG New York Champion’s Awards Gala – “The Art of The Deal.”

“Burt Alimansky has been a leader in advancing the mission of the Association for Corporate Growth (ACG) both here in New York and creating a community environment for the private equity community through the Capital Roundtable,” says Roger Aguinaldo, CEO of the M&A Advisor. “We are honored to present Burt with the Peter Hilton Award for Leadership for his contributions and continued commitment.”

In addition to his work with The Capital Roundtable and ACG New York, Burt has served on the boards of several successful companies, including PetSmart Inc. He has been president of the Harvard Business School Club of New York, a national board member of the National Foundation for Teaching Entrepreneurship, and a board member of the American Woman’s Economic Development Corp. He co-founded and chaired the City of New York’s annual Venture Capital Conference, and has been active in several professional organizations, including (among others) the National Venture Capital Association, the Investors' Circle, the National Association of Small Business Investment Companies, the Entrepreneurship Institute, the Financial Women's Association, and the Software and Information Industries Association.

“Burt Alimansky’s support of ACG over the last 25 years has been a guiding force in the Association’s growth in New York,” said Robert Blumenfeld, Executive Director of ACG New York.
